Re: Appreciation of Mrs. Liubov Demidenko's performance

Sir,

I am addressing this letter to you since I have been informed that your company, Play Music Agency, acts as the agent for the pianist Mrs. Liubov Demidenko.

For a period of five days, from June 19 to 25, 2017, my wife and I enjoyed our annual stay at the Hôtel Ermitage in Schönried, Switzerland. Every day, from 16.00 to 17.00, 18.30 to 19.30 and 21.00 to 23.30, Mrs. Demidenko entertained the guests with her piano play and singing.

During extended travels to more than 60 countries over more than 40 years, we have stayed in many hotels where skilled pianists have entertained us guests during afternoons and/or evenings.

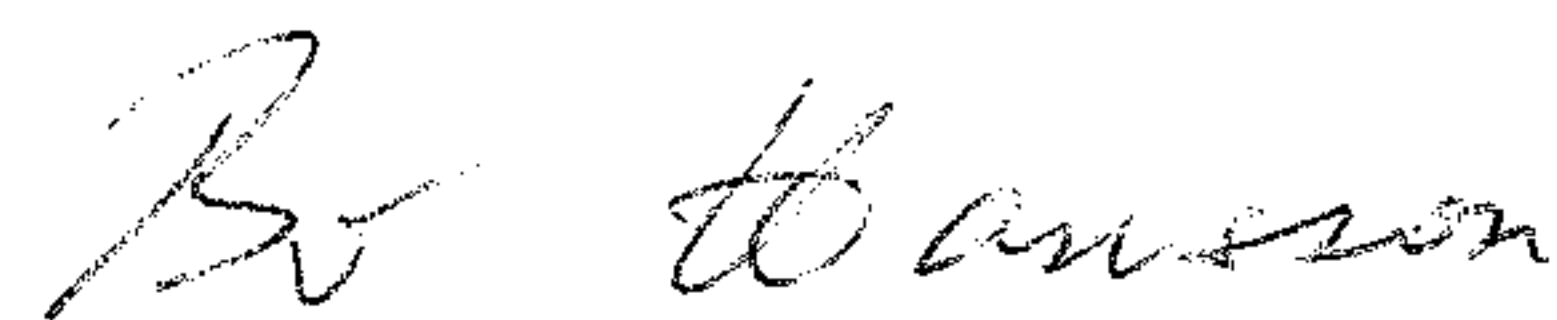

We rate the quality of Mrs. Demidenko's performance to be well above any of those professional pianists. Her key touch, interpretation of the music and dexterity, whether she plays classical music, jazz or pop music, is remarkable, and with her charming voice and appearance her singing adds a very pleasurable dimension to the music she plays.

It is in light of this experience that I have felt it worthwhile to share with you our impressions of this pianist, whose appreciation by hotel guests is of paramount importance to the hotels where she performs.

I may add that I myself play the piano, albeit at a much more amateurish level than Mrs. Demidenko, and that my wife and I during the above-mentioned 40-year period each year have subscribed to a program of classical concerts at the Victoria Hall in Geneva, which can be seen as a measure of our appreciation of well performed music.

I hope that this letter in some way will assist in your giving Mrs. Demidenko the support she rightly deserves.

Yours faithfully,

Bo Hansson
